Remember the Sabbath

O day of all the days the best,
When — laid aside each earthly care —
We meet with God's dear saints so blest,
And in their praise and worship share.
Not by a rigid code we're bound
With death to all who disobey;
But through God's love within us found,
We keep this precious worship day.

STEWARDSHIP IN ACTION WHAT'S YOUR MARKET VALUE?

You own a car, house, beach house, mountain retreat. Do you have investments, savings accounts? Great, these are gifts from GOD.

Our life is more valuable than our money. That is why we need to place it in the hands of the best known investment of lives: GOD. It is very important that we build the habit of committing ourselves to GOD. He wants to bless us.

Now is the time of year when we consider our investment with our church. Our time, our talent, and yes, our money.

All of us waste some of our time. We don't share our talent. We want to hold on to our money. It is time to give some of all these things back to GOD. If you do, you will harvest even more good things in your life. That's GOD's promise to you. What's your promise to GOD going to be? There will be a payback time for each of us before or when we leave this world.

The Cost of Freedom

*For freedom Christ has set us free; stand firm therefore,
and do not submit again to a yoke of slavery.*

Galatians 5:1

Through my years of ministry our country has gone through a number of foreign wars and conflicts sending men and women in the military overseas to fight. During those times I was keenly aware of the cost of freedom. Many of the men and women saw and experienced things no young person should have to witness. I prayed for their safe return knowing full well many of them would come home scarred physically, mentally, and emotionally; and others would not return alive. They are the ones who paid the ultimate price with their lives. That is the cost of freedom—the lives of those who are willing to serve their country no matter what.

Many of the men and women today serving on foreign soil will come home to their loved ones. They too, will have given of their lives so that we might be free here in the United States of America. But some of them will come home and have a hard time of it. Troubled with PTSD (Post Traumatic Stress Disorder), they will be haunted night and day by the horrors they experienced. They will have a hard time with relationships—family and/or friends. Holding down a job, if they can find one, will be difficult. Some, no longer able to cope, will commit suicide. Tragic.

War is tragic. It is the product of sin, period. It is the result of sinful people not able to get along and think the only way to resolve the problem is to fight. Sometimes when an aggressor seeks to conquer others for their own evil purposes, others are forced to respond in defense. If they want to protect their rights, their freedom, and the freedom of others they feel compelled to fight back.

I'm looking forward to that day when Christ will return and bring into being his Kingdom and an end to all wars. But in the meantime, it's a mean time and we have to put up with war. However, for those of us who are followers of Christ, we know from Scripture that ultimately the cost our freedom is not based on the might of our country's military—it is based on Jesus Christ sacrificing his life for ours.

In the above scripture passage we learn that Christ has set us free from our sin to be free, to live free and he advises us to not submit again to the slavery of sin. We can live in the freest country in the world and still be enslaved to sin. Through his death and resurrection Jesus has defeated sin, death and the devil and made it possible for us to be truly free. As a result, we could live in the most enslaved country in the world and be truly free in Christ Jesus. Our Lord says in John 8: "If the Son sets you free, you will be free indeed."

We are truly free, when by his grace, Jesus Christ forgives us of our sin and gives us hope of eternal life. We are free from sin to live by the Spirit. Paul tell us in Galatians 5:16: "So I say, live by the Spirit, and you will not gratify the desires of the sinful nature."

The best way we can honor God is to live our lives in the freedom Christ has graciously given us. The best way we can honor those who are serving overseas or here at home in the military for their sacrifice is to pray for them, to support them, and work here at home to make America a country that is truly free in Christ Jesus.

Pastor Carl

We need friends. Friends guide us, care for us, confront us in love, console us in times of pain. Although we speak of "making friends," friends cannot be made. Friends are free gifts from God. But God gives us the friends we need when we need them if we fully trust in God's love.

Friends cannot replace God. They have limitations and weaknesses like we have. Their love is never faultless, never complete. But in their limitations they can be signposts on our journey towards the unlimited and unconditional love of God. Let's enjoy the friends whom God has sent on our way.
